Headline:
A dull and occasionally wet day.

Today:
A dull, cloudy day with occasional rain, this turning heavy at times. Best of any limited brighter spells expected late afternoon. South to southwest winds occasionally freshening towards the coast. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud and rain clearing eastwards during the evening to leave clear spells and a scattering of showers, these largely focused across Argyll. Southwest winds strengthening. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Wednesday:
Majority dry and bright for the morning. Cloud building northwards into Central Belt for the afternoon, bringing a risk showery rain, while separate rainband pushes more definitely into Argyll. Windy. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Cold snap Thursday, early Friday, with scattered showers, wintry over hills, and fresh north to northwest winds. Drier late Friday. Milder Saturday as winds back southwest, pushing rainbands across area.
